

Mako Create are holding some up-coming FREE digital arts and technology workshops. These workshops are specifically for young adults aged 18-24, living in Halton who have autism and/or learning disabilities.

The next in the series of workshops will be held at Brookvale Community Centre, we have a Stop-Motion-Animation session on Friday 12th November (5pm-7pm) and Tote Bag Design on Friday 26th November (5pm-7pm). We provide all of the equipment and the sessions are free to attend. The participants just need to sign up through Eventbrite (details below), or they can email us, or call us to sign up.
